1. Each regiment in the Bulgarian army maintains its own mobile warehouse, but these warehouses do not contain large quantities of equipment nor essential or vital items.
2. The armies maintain large immobile warehouses under the jurisdiction of the army area in which they are located. Among the First Army warehouses are the following:
 - a. Clothing and shoe warehouses in Chelopech, in the Sofia district.
 - b. Gasoline depot in Kremikovtsi, in the Sofia district.
 - c. Airplane gasoline depot in Verinsko, near Ihtiman.
 - d. Munitions dump between the villages of Dervenitsa and Simeonovo, in the Sofia district.
 - e. Munitions dump in Sofia proper near the Seminariya railroad station in the southern corner of Boris Gardens.
3. In the Third Army area there is a large system of underground gasoline tanks in a suburb of Sliven called Krastavo Pole which is located in the eastern portion of the city.
